

CHAPTER 26

LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

Doctoral Theses

332. AKHTAR PARVEZ
Information Seeking Behaviour of Managers Working in Financial Institutions in India : A Study.
Supervisor : Prof. S P Singh
Th 18187

Abstract

Studies the structure of Indian financial industry and identify the industry's stake-holders, the information needs and information seeking behaviour of corporate managers (analysts, Managers/Sr. Managers and GMs and above) working in the financial institutions. It has identified the various types of information resources (print and electronic) used by different categories of corporate managers and the problems being faced by them.

Contents

1. Introduction. 2. Review of related literature. 3. Methodology and research design. 4. Profile of the organisations. 5. Indian financial system : An overview. 6. Important financial sources. 7. Data collection and analysis. 8. Findings, suggestions and area for further research.

333. JAIN (Praveen Kumar)
Study of the Indian Statistical Serials : Their Development and Use in the Libraries of ICSSR Institutions in Delhi.
Supervisor : Dr. Rakesh Kumar Bhatt
Th 18186

Abstract

It studied the growth and development of Indian statistical serials both in print and electronic form, the use of statistical serials within libraries of the ICSSR in Delhi and examine their comparative usefulness. It has also explored the possibility of consortium based serials subscription amongst the libraries under study and identified the existence of core statistical serials and multidisciplinary serials used by social scientists in different disciplines.

Contents

1. The study : its scope, objectives and hypotheses. 2. Review of literature. 3. Research design and methodology. 4. Role of statistical serials in the development of Social Sciences. 5. Profile of libraries. 6. Data collection and analysis. 7. Findings, conclusion and suggestions. Bibliography and appendices.

334. PAUL (Shampa)
Digitization and Open Access Initiatives : A Study of Special Libraries in National Capital Region.
 Supervisor : Prof. Shashi Prabha Singh
 Th 18185

Abstract

It Studied the state of the art technology used for digitization, steps taken for quality control, methods adopted for open access, training of professionals, users' response towards the use of digitized information and problems being faced by library professionals as well as users in using such resources. Special Libraries in national Capital Region (NCR).

Contents

1. Introduction. 2. Methodology. 3. Review of literature. 4. Digitization in libraries. 5. Profile of the institutions and their libraries. 6. Data collection and analysis. 7. Findings, suggestions and areas of further research.

335. TOPAN DASS
Growth and Development of Journals in Economics with Special Referecne to E-Journals : A Study of Libraries of Central Universities in Delhi.
 Supervisor : Dr. R K Bhatt
 Th 18184

Abstract

This work has undertaken the growth and development of journals, the comparative growth of the print and electronic journals, in the subject Business and Economics in the Libraries of Central Universities in Delhi. Further it has studied the growth of budget of the libraries, trends of expenditure on electronic resources particularly in the field of Economics in Central University in Delhi. The impact of electronic resources and services on the academic work of the teachers and research scholars and the infrastructure of libraries for the use of electronic journals are also taken up.

Contents

1. The study : its scope, objectives, hypotheses and research methodology. 2. Electronic Resources. 3. Literature review. 4. Economics. 5. Libraries of central university of Delhi : A profile. 6. Data analysis and interpretation. 7. Findings, conclusions and suggestion. Appendices and Bibliography.

M.Phil Dissertations

336. AMIT KUMAR
Use of E-Journals in the Field of Chemistry by Faculty Members and Research Scholars in Select University Libraries in Delhi : A Study.
 Supervisor : Dr. R K Bhatt
337. ASHRAF K
Use of Library and Information Science Online Discussion Groups (LIS-ODG) by the College Libraries Affiliated to University of Delhi : A Study.
 Supervisor : Dr. Shailendra Kumar
338. KANCHAN RANI
Electronic Research : A Survey of Current Practices in University Libraries in Delhi.
 Supervisor : Dr. M Madhusudan
339. MOHD. YUSUF
Marketing of LIS Products and Services in Select Economics Libraries in Delhi : A Study.
 Supervisor : Dr. R K Bhatt
340. MUNANSANGLUAI NGAIHTE (S)
Use of Web Based Information Resources in Biochemistry by Research Scholars, University of Delhi : A Study.
 Supervisor : Dr. Shailendra Kumar

341. NARESH KUMAR
Use of Electronic Journals by Defence Scientists in Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) Labs of Delhi : A Study.
Supervisor : Dr. K P Singh
342. OM PRAKASH
Institutional Repositories : A Study of Selected University Libraries in Delhi and Punjab.
Supervisor : Prof. S P Singh