

CHAPTER 2

AFRICAN STUDIES

Doctoral Theses

002. SINGH (Pushpraj)
Social Dimensions of Tradition and Religion in Nigeria.
Supervisor : Dr. A. S. Yaruigam
Th 16819

Abstract

The Study aims at revisiting the salient features of traditional religion of West Africa in the light of new religions viz, Islam and Christianity. Describes various components of indigenous religions of West Africa. Examines the various complexities involved in the religion of Yoruba land in South-West Nigeria. Explains how Christianity and Islam succeeded in converting the natives by luring them away from their indigenous religions and its implications.

Contents

1. Introduction. 2. An overview of Western African religions. 3. West African pantheon. 4. Religion in Yoruba Land before the advent of Christianity and Islam. 5. Introduction of Christianity and Islam in Nigeria. 6. Revisiting African traditional religion. Conclusion. Bibliography.

M.Phil Dissertations

003. ANITA KUMARI
Impact of Global Warming : A Study of Kenya.
Supervisor : Dr. Suresh Kumar
004. JHA (Alka)
India-East Africa Trade Relations During the Period 16th to 18th Century.
Supervisor : Dr. Suresh Kumar

005. MADHU RANI
Issue of Decentralisation and Local Governance in South Africa.
Supervisor : Dr. Suresh Kumar
006. PRAMOD KUMAR
Role of India's Scientific Technology in Mauritian Society.
Supervisor : Dr. Suresh Kumar
007. SHARMA (Sourabh Jyoti)
China's Military Diplomacy Towards Africa in the 21st Century.
Supervisor : Dr. A. S. Yaruingam