

CHAPTER 10

EAST ASIAN STUDIES

Doctoral Theses

144. BARUAH (Pranamita)
Impact of Nuclear Disarmament and Non-Proliferation on Peace and Security in the East Asian Region since 1990.
Supervisor : Prof. Madhu Bhalla
Th 21028

Contents

1. Nuclearization, proliferation and disarmament debate in relation to East Asia 2. The perception of 'security' in East Asia. 3. East Asian's Initiative towards a nuclear free world order: the emergence of a cooperative security framework. Institutionalizing cooperative security in East Asia: prospects and challenges. Conclusion. Bibliography.

145. NALWA (Preeti)
Japan's Security Agenda and the Security Architecture of Northeast Asia.
Supervisor : Prof. Madhu Bhalla
Th 21287

Contents

1. Introduction 2. IR Theory and literature review 3. Japan's security relations in Northeast Asia: An overview 4. Japan's changing security policy : Activism lite to activism stride 5. Japan's evolving Multilateralism: Influence on East Asian Security 6. Japan's relations with North Korea 7. Sino-Japanese relations: Regional leaders and political rivals 8. US-Japan Alliance: fostering Security Dilemma or 'public good' in Northeast Asian RSC 9. Conclusion. Bibliography.

146. SHARMA (Nitasha)
Suicides: Changing Perceptions of Life and Death in Japanese Society.
Supervisor : Dr. Ranjana Mukhopadhyaya
Th 21247

Contents

1. Theories of Suicides and Suicides in Japan Part I. 2. Suicides in Japan. 3. Perception of life and Death in Japan. 3. The early Twentieth Century (Late Meiji; 1868-1912 and Taisho Period; 1912-1926. 4. Period during and after world war II (1935-55. 5. Post-Occupation Economic Boom Period. 6. The Contemporary Period (1980 Onwards) 7. Conclusion. Bibliography.