

CHAPTER 21

HISTORY

Doctoral Theses

266. D W KARUNA MIRYAM
Weaving Histories : The Handloom Industry in South India : Aspects of Production, Work and Identities, c. 1800-1960.
Supervisor : Dr. Prabhu Prasad Mohapatra
Th 21217

Contents

1. Introduction 2. A geography of clothes and weaving 3. Statistics, looms and people: The changing contours of the handloom industry 4. From cotton to cloth : The linking threads 5. Changes in the organization and relations of production : The nineteenth and the twentieth century 6. Caste and work 7. Repertoires of resistance 8. The state and the weaver 9. Conclusion, annexures and bibliography.

267. DUBEY (Pallavi)
Kushanas in North India : a Numismatic and Archaeological Study.
Supervisor : Prof. R.C. Thakran
Th 20998

Contents

1. Introduction : Historiographic survey 2. The making of the Kushana empire 3. Kushana coins and inscriptions 4. Kushana settlements and their material culture 5. Some facets of Kushana ethos 6. Conclusion, bibliography and appendices.

268. FARHA KHAN
Christian-Muslim Encounters and Debates in Northern India, C-1579-1857
Supervisor : Prof. S.Z.H. Jafri
Th 21298

Contents

1. Introduction 2. Christians in Mughal-North India : Earliest contacts and the establishment of the mission 3. Establishment of colonial rule, missionary activities, and muslims of British India 4. Print culture in Northern India : The Bible in Indian languages, and Christian-Muslim Polemical literature 5. An open conflict; the great Agra Munazara of 1854 6. Religious debates and the making of 1857 7. Conclusion and bibliography.

269. MISHRA (Manisha)
Perceptions of Hindu Religious Practices and Systems in Selected Texts of the Sixteenth and the Seventeenth Centuries
 Supervisor : Prof. S.Z.H Jafri
Th 21296

Contents

1 Introduction 2. An overview of the external perceptions of Hindu religious practices and systems (From early medieval times to the threshold of Akbar's ascendancy) 3. Perception of Hindu religious systems and practices as gleaned from the AIN-I Akbari 4. Perception of Hindu religious systems and practices in dabistan-I Mazahib 5. Perception of Hindu religious systems and practices in Majma-Ul Bahrain and SIRR-I Akbar 6. Summary and conclusions. Bibliography.

270. SANJAY KUMAR
Historical Analysis of Changing Primary Public Health Policies in Pre and Post Independence India up to the 1990s
 Supervisor : Dr. Biswamoy Pati
Th 21297

Contents

1 Introduction 2. Exploring public health policies in pre-independence India 3. Emerging perspectives : Exploring health in post-independence India 4. Exploring public health policies in post-independence India, up to the Alma ata Declaration (1978) 5. Exploring the Indian public health policies after the Alma Ata declaration up to 1990s 6. Epilogue. Bibliography.

271. SAXENA (Monika)

Roles and Representations of Women in the Puranas.

Supervisor : Prof. Upinder Singh

Th 20999

Contents

1. Introduction 2. The Puranas : Text and tradition 3. Negotiating new socio-religious norms 4. Engendering social relationships 5. Vratas, rites and rituals 6. Conclusion and bibliography