PROFILE OF THE DEPARTMENT

In 1964, the Department of East Asian Studies began as the Centre of Chinese Studies in the University of Delhi. Japanese Studies was introduced in 1969 that expanded the centre to the Department of Chinese and Japanese Studies. The incorporation of Korean Studies in 2001 resulted in the new nomenclature as the Department of East Asian Studies. The Department offers three post graduate courses: an M.A. in East Asian Studies, an M.A. in Japanese Language and Ph.D. in East Asian Studies. The Post-graduate courses in the Department focus on an inter-disciplinary approach to the study of the region. Language is a compulsory component of this programme and students are required to learn one of the three East Asian languages: Chinese, Japanese and Korean. This programme enables students to have comprehensive and integrated knowledge of the subject and the language concerned. The Department also offers Ph.D. in East Asian Studies. Further, the Department offers Post Graduate Courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean languages, designed for students who have an undergraduate course. Part Time Certificate, Diploma and Advanced Diploma courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean are being conducted through various colleges of Delhi University. Post-Graduate students of the Department of East Asian Studies have placement opportunities in several Think tanks, namely, Vivekananda International Foundation, Institute for Peace and Conflict Studies, Institute for Defense Studies and Analyses, Observer Research Foundation, Centre for Air Power Studies, Institute of Chinese Studies, and Indian Council of World Affairs. Language students of our Department have opportunities for placement in several companies in and outside India namely, Vivo Mobiles, Liteon Technology Corporation, OPPO Mobiles, Hindustan Computers Limited, Mitsubishi Corporation, LG Electronics, Huawei Telecommunications, Samsung, American Express, Shinhan Bank, VFS Visa Services, Maruti Suzuki, and Oracles. There are various scholarships for students for higher studies in China, Taiwan, Japan and Korea like UNESCO/People's Republic of China – Great Wall Co-sponsored Fellowships, Taiwan Huayu Scholarship, Huawei Scholarship, Mitsubishi Corporation International Scholarship, Japanese language scholarship for outstanding students by Japan Foundation, Shinhan Bank scholarships, Scholarship by M/s LG Electronics Ltd, US-India-China Initiative by Johns Hopkins University, Harvard-Yenching Fellowship etc. Department of East Asian Studies has a Language Lab with a good collection of audio and video teaching materials. It also has a Library with a collection of more than 80,000 books and a number of prominent journals in English, Chinese, Japanese and Korean. Department of East Asian Studies is wi-fi enabled for all students, staff and faculty members.

student not complying with this requirement will not be allowed to appear in the semester examination

There shall be 5% weightage for regularity in attending lectures and tutorials, and the credit for regularity in each paper, based on attendance, shall be as follows:

More than 67% but less than 70%	-	1 Mark
70% or more but less than 75%	-	2 Marks
75% or more but less than 80%	-	3 Marks
80% or more but less than 85%	-	4 Marks
85% and above	-	5 Marks

(Medical certificates shall be excluded while calculating credit towards marks to be awarded for regularity, though such certificates shall continue to be taken into account for the purpose of calculating eligibility to appear for examinations as per the existing provision of Ordinance VII.2.9.(a)(ii).]

PROMOTION CRITERIA

1. Pass Percentage & Promotion Criteria

- The minimum marks required to pass any paper in a semester shall be 40% in Theory and 40% in Practical, wherever applicable. The student must secure 40% in the End Semester Examination and 40% in the total of End Semester Examination & Internal Assessment of the paper for both theory & practical separately.
- No student will be detained in I or III Semester on the basis of her performance in I or III Semester examination; in other words, the students will be promoted automatically from I to II and III to IV Semester.
- Students are required to have 66 percent attendance in each course to be able to appear in the final semester examination of that particular course.
- Students, who appear in the 1st Semester examination but are detained from appearing in the 2nd Semester examination due to shortage of attendance, shall not be promoted to the third Semester and they shall have to be readmitted to the 2nd Semester.
- If a student is not eligible for appearing in the 1st Semester examination for any reason, she will not be eligible for admission to the 2nd Semester and will have to be readmitted to the 1st Semester of the course concerned.
- A student shall be eligible for promotion from 1st year to 2nd year of the course provided she has passed 50% of the papers of I and II Semester taken together.

- Students who do not fulfill the promotion criteria stipulated above shall be declared failed in the Part concerned. However, they shall have the option to retain the marks in the papers in which they have secured Pass marks.
- A student who has to reappear in a paper prescribed for Semester I/III may do so only in the odd Semester examinations to be held in November/December. Likewise, a student who has to reappear in a paper prescribed for Semester II/IV may do so only in the even Semester examinations to be held in April/May.

2. Reappearance in passed papers:

Students should take special note of the following university rules for payment of fees:

- (a) A newly admitted student should pay fees within the period mentioned in the admission notice.
- (b) A fine of Rs.1/- per day will be charged for mid-term fees after the expiry of the prescribed date.
- (c) In case a student fails to pay his dues within one month of the last date notified for payment of fees, his name will be struck off the rolls. Such a student may be re-admitted on payment of a re-admission fee of Rs.10 and on payment of the arrears.
- (d) A student should produce at the office of the Department the receipt issued by the University Cashier immediately after the payment of fees. Those who fail to do so will be regarded as not having paid their fees and their name will be struck off the rolls according to University rules.
- (e) In case of foreign students, they will be required to pay a one-time University Registration fee seeking admission to any course in the department. In addition to the Registration fees, the foreign students would also be required to pay a fixed amount to the department per year after the admission is granted.

IMPORTANT NOTICES FOR ALL STUDENTS

- University of Delhi's Policy on Sexual Harassment (Ordinance XV(D): Prohibition of and Punishment for Sexual Harassment)
 - The University of Delhi is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which students, teachers and non-teaching staff can work together in an environment free of violence, harassment, exploitation and intimidation. This includes all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment and discrimination on the basis of sex/gender. Every member of the University community should be aware that while the University is committed to the right to freedom of expression and association, it strongly supports gender equality and opposes any form of gender discrimination and violence.
 - Complaints of sexual harassment/violation of gender equality shall be dealt with by the University in accordance with the provisions contained in the above mentioned ordinance.
- Disputes, if any, arising out of relating to any matter whatsoever, concerning the process of admission shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts in Delhi only.
- Delhi University is partnering with Delhi Police and World Lung Foundation – South Asia in promoting a tobacco free environment. As a step in that direction, smoking is banned in the Department of East Asian Studies.
- The Department has a zero tolerance policy towards ragging and is bound by the University's policies on ragging.
- The Department does not tolerate any discriminatory or abusive behavior from any member, student, staff or faculty, towards another, based on caste / religion / language/ethnicity etc. and any person found to indulge in such behavior will be strictly dealt with in accordance with the law of the land.
- Students may note that plagiarism in any form is not acceptable and will lead to disciplinary action.
- Students pursuing various courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean languages in this department are cautioned against unauthorized lucrative offers from outside agencies with respect to study trips or visits to China or Japan or Korea. The department shall not be responsible for any fraudulent practice by any such unauthorized agency or person, who indulges in luring innocent students with temptations of foreign trips or tours.

- Students are encouraged to periodically check the Department Notice Board, visit the Department's website as well as the website of the University of Delhi to get the latest information.
- A number of scholarships to China, Japan, Korea and Taiwan are available for students who perform well in various courses in the department. These are awarded on the basic guidelines laid down.
